

PROMOTION AND EDUCATION...

If you are interested in joining a small quilting group, email small.groups@wsqspokane.org or if you need a speaker on the art of quilting, please email president@wsqspokane.org.

QUILTING BEES...

Quilting bees are a great way to meet other quilters. Bring a project to work on and a dish for the potluck luncheon. Plan for a fun day of eating, sewing prizes and sharing! It's free and no registration required.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS...

NON-MEMBERS WELCOME

Fourth Thursday in January, April, July and September. Attend the 1pm or 7pm session at Center Place, Spokane Valley. Doors open about one hour before the meeting and no food is allowed at meetings.

Our meetings include a welcome from the president, a short business meeting, members' Show and Tell, a block exchange and door prize drawings. The highlight of each meeting is a presentation by inspiring nationally recognized quilters.

Meetings are free to members, guests/non-members pay $10 at the door. Entry fee may be applied toward annual dues if you join at the meeting.

Workshops taught by the speaker are usually offered Friday and Saturday after the meeting. Fees vary and pre-registration is required. For more information: firstvp@wsqspokane.org.
